DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 10 and 11, drawn to polypeptide composition, classified in class 424, subclass 234.1.
 - II. Claims 1-6 and 29-31, drawn to method of immunization using polypeptide composition, classified in class 424, subclass 9.2.
 - III. Claims 1-8, 12-14, 23, 24, 29, and 32, drawn to antibody and hybridoma composition, classified in class 424, subclass 164.1.
 - IV. Claims 9, 15-20 and 22, drawn to immunoassays using antibody, classified in class 436, subclass 501.
 - V. Claims 25-27, drawn to method of passive immunization, classified in class 435, subclass 7.1.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and III-V are drawn to structurally and functionally distinct molecules.

Invention I is drawn to polypeptide while Inventions III-V are drawn to antibody.

Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the polypeptides of Invention I can be utilized in vitro for immunoassays to detect infection.

Art Unit: 1645

Inventions II and III-V are drawn to structurally and functionally distinct molecules.

Invention II is drawn to polypeptide while Inventions III-V are drawn to antibody.

Inventions III and IV are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the antibodies of Invention III can be utilized in vivo for passive immunoassays against infections in a host.

Inventions III and V are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the antibodies of Invention III can be utilized in vitro for immunoassays to detect infection.

Inventions IV and V are drawn to different methods utilizing different steps and ending in different results.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above, have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, and because while the searches may overlap, the searches are not coextensive, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Art Unit: 1645

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
